DESTINATION: ART COMPLIANCE STATEMENT and Guidelines of Artwork Selection

In keeping with the Mission of Destination: Art (D:A), every potential or renting artist, exhibitor, participant, premises user, outside organization, instructor and student acknowledges and agrees to the D:A Compliance Statement.

- A. Destination: Art reserves the right of final approval of all artwork to be displayed in all areas of its facility, inside or outside the building. It reserves the right to reject any artwork not in compliance with this Statement. This space includes, but is not limited to, the gallery and hallways of its venue and facilities, and artists' studios. Exhibit location of each work of art displayed within or outside of the facility is also at Destination Art's discretion.
- B. The Destination Art facility is not a public forum. The gallery, lobby, lounge area, studio areas, and hallway areas are passageways for its patrons and students to reach Destination Art classes and events as well as the Destination: Art exhibits. These classes, events and exhibits-are attended by children and minors. These areas also are used and/or viewed by the public entering the building housing Destination: Art. This building includes therapy treatment and clinical space used by children and minors.
- C. Artwork for exhibitions is prescreened and evaluated by the Destination: Art gallery curator and/or his or her designee based on artistic merit, quality, and originality; treatment of subject matter, craftsmanship and professional presentation; spatial limitations of exhibit areas and relationship to the particular theme or subject matter of an upcoming exhibition.
